

SUNDAY CHIMES 30th March 2025

4th Sunday of Lent

www.melburyteam.co.uk

Benefice prayers: our next prayer gathering to pray for our group of churches is on Thursday 10 April at 10am at The Vicarage in Maiden Newton. Please join us as we focus on our Easter services.

Messy Easter: our next Messy Church event is on Sunday 13 April at 3pm in St Mary's Maiden Newton. Please join us as we celebrate Easter: there will be various activities including an Easter Egg hunt.

Please pray for

- Those who care for us, and that we might be caring people and a caring church
- Our preparations for Easter across the team
- annual meetings across our churches
- That the flare up of fighting between Israel and Hamas would end and that a lasting peace may be found
- That the proposed ceasefire between Russia and Ukraine will take place.
- Any who are ill or bereaved at the moment

From the Prayer Diary: Persecuted Christians

Editors and distributors of the Chimes and Herald

They all joined together constantly in prayer ...” (Acts 1:14)

Readings: Joshua 5:9-12; Psalm 32; 2 Corinthians 5:16-end
Luke 15:1-3,11b-end

SUNDAY CHIMES 30th March 2025

4th Sunday of Lent

www.melburyteam.co.uk

Benefice prayers: our next prayer gathering to pray for our group of churches is on Thursday 10 April at 10am at The Vicarage in Maiden Newton. Please join us as we focus on our Easter services.

Messy Easter: our next Messy Church event is on Sunday 13 April at 3pm in St Mary's Maiden Newton. Please join us as we celebrate Easter: there will be various activities including an Easter Egg hunt.

Please pray for

- Those who care for us, and that we might be caring people and a caring church
- Our preparations for Easter across the team
- annual meetings across our churches
- That the flare up of fighting between Israel and Hamas would end and that a lasting peace may be found
- That the proposed ceasefire between Russia and Ukraine will take place.
- Any who are ill or bereaved at the moment

From the Prayer Diary: Persecuted Christians

Editors and distributors of the Chimes and Herald

They all joined together constantly in prayer ...” (Acts 1:14)

Readings: Joshua 5:9-12; Psalm 32; 2 Corinthians 5:16-end
Luke 15:1-3,11b-end