

SUNDAY CHIMES 10th January 2021

1st Sunday of Epiphany

www.melburyteam.co.uk

Our churches are open for services despite the latest lockdown. However there won't be a service at Melbury Bubb on 17 January.

We will need to observe social distancing carefully, and we still cannot sing inside church. We will continue to post a service each week on Youtube (Melbury Team Channel). Please let us know if there are people who would like paper copies of these services if they cannot access them.

Please pray

- For us all as we go through this new period of lockdown
- For all medical staff under great pressure at the moment
- For wisdom for our government as they try to manage the situation in our country
- For the speedy roll out of the vaccine
- For teachers and students with online lessons or home schooling

From the Prayer Diary: Daniel and Jenna Ingles
Those working in local garages and workshops

They all joined together constantly in prayer ...” (Acts 1:14)

Readings

Genesis 1: 1-5; Psalm: 29; Acts 19: 1-7; Mark 1: 4-11.

renewing hope => ... PRAY... SERVE ... GROW... <= renewing hope

SUNDAY CHIMES 10th January 2021

1st Sunday of Epiphany

www.melburyteam.co.uk

Our churches are open for services despite the latest lockdown. However there won't be a service at Melbury Bubb on 17 January.

We will need to observe social distancing carefully, and we still cannot sing inside church. We will continue to post a service each week on Youtube (Melbury Team Channel). Please let us know if there are people who would like paper copies of these services if they cannot access them.

Please pray

- For us all as we go through this new period of lockdown
- For all medical staff under great pressure at the moment
- For wisdom for our government as they try to manage the situation in our country
- For the speedy roll out of the vaccine
- For teachers and students with online lessons or home schooling

From the Prayer Diary: Daniel and Jenna Ingles
Those working in local garages and workshops

They all joined together constantly in prayer ...” (Acts 1:14)

Readings

Genesis 1: 1-5; Psalm: 29; Acts 19: 1-7; Mark 1: 4-11.

renewing hope => ... PRAY... SERVE ... GROW... <= renewing hope